Newfield School First Aid Protocol (Staff & Visitors)

Title First Aid – Staff & Visitors

Rationale

As part of our on-going commitment to Health & Safety and following an assessment of First Aid provision the following protocol will outline safe working practices & procedures in and out of school.

Directives

The following directives should be adhered to:

Managing First Aid for Staff and Adults visiting School

Mathilde Sharrocks/Nathan Wilkinson/Karl White/Nick Bellas are qualified in First Aid at Work (FAW) and are responsible for administering First Aid treatment to Staff & Adult visitors only.

Approximately 25 Emergency First Aiders at Work (EFAW) have been trained and can administer Emergency First Aid to Staff and Adult visitors to school only.

A Staff First Aider must be present in the building throughout the whole of each working day. First Aid Provision must also cover holiday periods and after school events, as required.

Any First Aid treatment should be recorded in the First Aid log book which is located with First Aid boxes

Managing First Aid for Staff out of School

A First Aider will, at all times, accompany each school trip off site.

A number of small First Aid 'kitbags' are located in the Assistant Heads Office (Old Pupil Services office) in Main School, and in Autism Reception in the School for Autism. Before leaving school the First Aider must:

- Collect and sign out a First Aid 'kitbag'
- Check the 'kitbag' before use and identify any missing contents.
- Report any missing or defective contents to the staff members responsible for re stocking. (G.Barnes)

	If any of the stock is used during the visit this should be recorded in the 'kitbag' log and the treatment recorded in the first aid book immediately on return to school. On return the 'kitbag' should be signed as returned. A First Aid Box is also carried on each of the school minibuses and the same rules for usage apply.
